Our second year together is underway. We know each other now. You have some idea what to expect from me and I'm beginning to get a handle on your traditions and dreams and ways of doing things. As we move forward in this final year of consulting ministry, we'll try out some new things and we'll reinvigorate some old things.

By the time you read this the board and committee on ministry and I will have met with PSD district executive Nancy Heege to develop a process for shaping an extension of my ministry here beyond the current two-year consulting agreement. Look for information about that process in upcoming newsletters. In the meantime, read the rest of this one carefully. It has information about plans for religious education, Coming of Age, and the new hymnbook supplement.

And please be in touch if you have questions, comments or concerns about any of my or our plans for this new year.

See you in church. Lisa

COMING SOON!

One of my life long dreams is about to come true, after a fashion, which is the way many life-long dreams come true. I'll soon be a mother--sort of.

I am in the final stages of being licensed for child foster care in Brown County. The Nora Church board is aware of and has shown support for my plans. My position here at Nora creates physical and organizational space for making this dream a reality. I have spare bedrooms, a huge yard, and virtually no need for regular daycare, what with my office in my home and the church just next door.

There are no guarantees in parenting of any kind, foster care perhaps least of all. I can't say when or who or how old or for how long or any particulars, really. Only this, sometime this fall or perhaps winter, a child or children will move in the parsonage with me, for a time. My life will be enriched and shaken up in ways I can't yet imagine but look forward to discovering. I will give you what advance notice I can, and keep you informed about what support the child and I might need--mostly, I anticipate, nothing more than a warm, friendly but calm welcome to the church community. I have no doubt you'll provide that in splendid fashion!

-Lisa

THANKS FROM THE BOARD

Thanks from the Board goes to everyone who helped make our "Music for a Summers Eve" a success. Organizers Julie Sellner and Kristine Paulson and all the performers and pie bakers for the delighting of our ears and tastebuds.

Thanks to Gordy for all he does around the grounds.

Thanks to Jerry Brown from Pennsylvania for painting the altar and new exterior doors while visiting with Ardelle Becken on his busman's holiday.

CONCERT SUCCESS!

Once again our "Music for a Summer's Eve" concert, held Wednesday evening, August 4th was well attended and a wide variety of music, stories and songs was enjoyed by all, in spite of the very warm weather.

Participants this year included Charles Luedtke (piano & organ), Doug Howard (violin), Monica Sturm (story), Mimi Kamleiter (piano), Nita Gilbert (guitar & songs), Jordan Rathman (piano), Jill Wagner (story), Eva Kunerth (flute), Grace Sorlsar (flute), Katie Staruar (piano), Benjamin Blomquist (piano), Evelyn Rosemarie Blomquist (piano). A sincere thank you to all participants.

Several ladies of the church offered a wide variety of pies along with ice cream and beverage, following the concert, in the air conditioned fellowship hall.

Special thanks to all the people who helped in any way in bringing another evening of good entertainment, good food and good fellowship for all to enjoy on "The Hill".

CHOIR NEWS From Gil Hanson

In 2008 I had to stop directing the choir because of a hearing disorder. Last fall I got new hearing aids that have helped more, so this fall I will again lead the choir. For the last two years JoAnn Huss has been our director. The choir was able to continue because of her. Now she has graciously agreed to let me return and be available if my improvement is not what I hope it is. I thank her for her encouragement and support.

Choir rehearsals will start on September 12. Rehearsals are from 9:00-10:00 a.m. in the sanctuary on Sunday mornings. I look forward to working with the choir members again and encourage others to join us.

If you have ever thought of singing in the choir, now is a great time to join. Nora church has had a tradition of great music in our services, and that tradition needs your participation to continue. The music is easy to learn - all music can be heard and learned on the choir page of the web site. Visit the choir page at <http://norauchurch.org/choir.shtml> and listen to the music for this year and then join us on the 12th.

A UU Retreat Center in the Area – Open House

Have you heard that a group of people have been working the past two years to start a UU Retreat Center 1 hour south of the Minneapolis/ St. Paul Metro area? Rev. Laurie Bushbaum and others, with support from the PSD, have formed a non-profit called The Fields Retreat and Learning Center. You're invited to come and see the proposed, 34- acre site and its gorgeous buildings in the rolling hills of the Cannon River Valley.

Please join us on Saturday, September 18 and Sunday, September 19 from 1:00-4:00 p.m. ALL AGES WELCOME! Bring a picnic, a Frisbee, a friend. We'll have lemonade and cookies, live music, and some yard games. See the 6,000 sq. ft. main house, the barn that will be renovated into youth and group retreat space, the greenhouses where we will start our organic food and justice ministry, and the lawn reserved for the labyrinth. Come and dream with us about how having our own retreat center might deepen our lives, our congregations, and our service in the world!

We hope to see you in September!

NEWS ON AL SWANSON

I thought I would touch base and provide the folks at Nora Church with an update on my dad, Alan Swanson. I was out to Minnesota for a visit over Memorial Day and brought Dad up to Hanska for church that weekend. He thoroughly enjoyed being there, although it was difficult because that was his first time back since Mom died. He misses her terribly.

His health has deteriorated since the end of May. I was back to Worthington the end of July after Dad had been hospitalized. He had had a very bad fall. We are not sure, but we believe he may have had a slight stroke. He has little strength on his left side, although his speech doesn't appear to be affected. He is in renal failure and has congestive heart failure. He is no longer able to live independently, so my sister and I have moved him out of the assisted living facility he was at. He is now at Crossroads Care Center, the nursing home where Mom was.

Although this is hard, he knows the staff and they know him and they take excellent care of him. We have involved hospice in his care also. Although he is occasionally confused, most days he is alert and conversant. He does sleep a lot and is no longer able to support his own body weight.

He doesn't have a phone in his room (he can't really manage that) but if folks would like to send him a card or note they can do that to:

As always, our family is grateful for the friendship so many at Nora Church have provided both our parents over the decades they attended there. -Reid Swanson

In Our Mothers' Footsteps (ongoing) This course shares information about important women from our Unitarian and/or Universalist heritage, but more than that, it offers the opportunity for modern women and men to reflect on how our own lives connect with those of our foremothers, and what we might have to learn from their struggles and successes. The course is divided into five sessions: Suffragists, Abolitionists, Writers, Educators and Ministers. This free course is made possible by the CLF through a generous grant from the UU Women's Federation. Free!

If you are unable to work on Sunday, please contact one of the substitutes on the list yourself.
