April Services

April 7: “Searching for Shalom, Salaam, Peace in the Middle”

Rev. Wes Hromatko, D.Min The news has made us painfully aware of tragic conflict in the Middle East. This week's address will deal with the background, present reality, and persistent hope for peace in the area where the human values that guide so many appeared. The common hope for peace is expressed in the closely related greetings Salaam and Shalom.

April 21: “Step by Step”

Rev. Laurie Bushbaum In March I will be walking for 2 weeks on an old trail along the West coast of Portugal. In January, at George Floyd Square, I met a South American family seeking Asylum, who walked from Ecuador to the Texas border with 2 children. Is there any thing in common between my journey and theirs?

News From the Board

Needed insulation in both the parsonage and the fellowship hall has recently been completed.

Our windmill quit functioning this winter. The company that installed it is no longer in business. Darrell H. has contacted someone in the Cities who will come to climb it when the weather is better and assess the problem.

March Board Meeting

The next board meeting will be a lunch on April 22, 11:30 at the New Ulm Country Club Cottonwood Grill.

Community

Our thoughts are with Brett Lehman and his family. His mother passed away this January.
